

A new group of the six children of the King and Queen of England. Back row (left to right)—Prince Albert, the Prince of Wales and Prince Henry. Front row (left to right)—Prince John, Princess Mary and Prince George.

Press Illustrating

A Canadian ammunition depot back of the front line.

Canadian Official, Western Newspaper Union.

Scene on the ground near Hooge. British Tommies on the battlefield. A wounded man is being taken to a dressing station in the distance, and on the left of the picture the rations and water are seen on their way up to the front line.

British Official
Underwood & Underwood.

A recently captured German being questioned by Canadian intelligence officers.

Canadian Official
Western News Union.

British crossing the Yser on their way to withstand the tremendous German attack now in progress.

British Official, Underwood & Underwood

